THE FACTS - May 2007

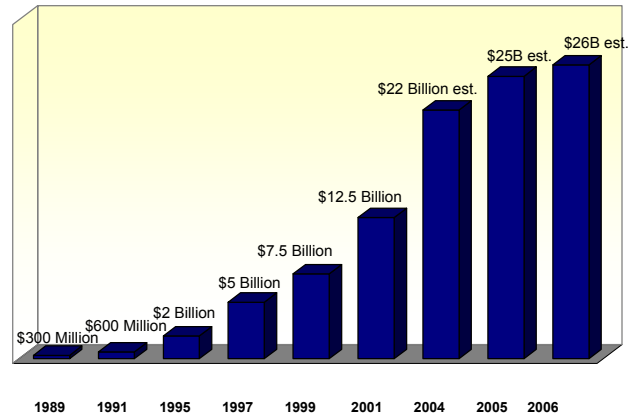

WBN Description

WBN is a highly integrated group of independent financial services consultancies with over 60 members throughout Europe, the Americas and the Pacific Basin. Members are amongst the leading firms in their respective countries.

The organization was established in 1989 to deliver quality international risk management solutions for clients who required a professional and efficient alternative to large bureaucratic organizations left over by market consolidation.

WBN is the largest organization of independent insurance brokers; risk management and employee benefit consultants working together on an integrated basis. When viewed as a single entity WBN is the largest broking firm in the world.
